PROPHECIES.

We are prophets all, I think,
Great and small:
Careless of each mystic link,
That is all.
Coming joys before us rise,
Coming sorrows make our eyes
Overflow,
Yet we never know
What it is that moves us so.

From the light of coming days
Darts a gleam,
Heed we not these sudden rays,
Think we dream,
Steadily the north wind blows
And full hastily we close
Spirit eyes,
Dust and sand arise
And the wondrous vision flies.

When the year that's old was young,
Musing long
Softly to myself I sung
Saddest song:
Called the typic sorrows mine,
And so daintily did twine
Wreaths of woe,
That my heart beat low,
Lest indeed my life should go.

When the page was written o'er,
Laughed I well,
At the blottings that it bore,
Where tears fell:
Laughed to see phantom grief
Claim such measureless belief
From a soul
Eager to enroll
Under reasons firm control.

While I marveled that the sprite
Would not go,
O'er me came the stormy night,
Now I know
Ghostly sorrow, hovering near
In the birth night of the year,
Not in vain
Wore its mystic chain,
Harbinger of truest pain!

Thus a nameless spirit-sense
Oft reveals
What the soul, with truth, intense
After feels.
He who giveth joy and pain,
Sendeth clouds before the rain
That our feet
May be timely fleet,
Bear us to His safe retreat.

Timid, faithless prophets, we
Ne'er discern
What this mystery may be,
Till we learn
All Life's book is written through,
Nothing here remains to do
Or endure,
And the rest is sure,
Hopeless woe, or joy secure.

A LOST CITY—A REMARKABLE DISCOVERY IN MEXICO.

CORDOVA, MEXICO, MARCH 27, 1867.

No little excitement prevails among the Americans in Mexico in regard to an unexplored district of country, hitherto unknown to the authorities, lying about three hundred miles north-west from Jalapa, and which Gen. R. Lyon, late of the Confederate army, is now engaged in surveying. In nearly every department of the Empire are to be found immense bodies of land which the foot of the Spaniard never trod; many of them impenetrable forests, inhabited only by beasts of prey, and whose shades the imagination of the native Indian had peopled with demons and evil spirits, upon whose domain it was more than death to trespass. Such is the land which Lyon has gone to explore.

HOW THE CITY WAS DISCOVERED.

While the Imperial Commissioners were investigating Government titles to lands to be allotted to emigrants, they learned of the existence of the "Tierra Calienta" of the district in question, and early in October last, an exploring party was dispatched to this "tierra incognita.' Upon reaching Mesa de Mecatepque, a small village nearest the body of the forest, they were counseled by the Indians to proceed no further, as no human being ever crossed the confines of the cleared lands and returned alive; demons were said to dwell in every hill giants of hideous mien made their abode beside every streamlet, while monsters of every form and guise stood ready at every footstep to siege and devour the unwary traveller, all was "mala," and not one syllable of good could be uttered in favor of the land.

Unable to procure sufficient assistance from the natives, the party proceeded to make their explorations as best they could. The forest was peculiarly dark and dense, and the jungle almost impenatrable. With difficulty they cut their way through the undergrowth, and, being unacquainted with the Yankee method of "blazing' trees, they marked their way by tying hide ropes to trees and bushes to mark the trail At the distance of several leagues in the interior, they discovered the ruins of an ancient city of great extent, and of whose existence not the slightest tradition prevails. Becoming exhausted by their labors, the party without prosecuting their discoveries any further returned home, reaching the capital late in December. The Emperor expressed great interest in the result of the exploration, and at once endeavored to send a stronger and more efficient party to prosecute it, selecting General Lyon, of Kentucky, as Commander of the expedition. The General is admirably adopted to the post. He was Lieutenant-colonel of the 2d (rebel) Kentucky Infantry, and was captured by General Grant at Fort Donelson. Subsequently exchanged, he was promoted Colonel, and afterward commanded a cavalry brigade in the rebel army, serving with Forrest. Since his residence in Mexico he has been Surveyor-general of the Imperial Colonization Association. General Lyon was unable to perfect his plans for the work until the 6th of February, upon which date his party, consisting of Americans, started from the City of Mexico. They traveled in stages and carts about two hundred and fifty miles; the balance of their journey was completed upon the backs of donkeys, arriving at their journey's end about the first week in March. The country is called Metaltaloyuca, and is situated some one hundred miles west of Tuxpan, in the State of Vera Cruz.

SECOND VISIT TO THE LOST CIY.

Entering the jungle at the same point as did the previous explorers, the party proceeded slowly with their surveys. The neighboring Indians, finding that their legends were all false and their fears groundless, became valuable assistants, and, large numbers being employed, the work soon began to progress rapidly. After encountering two or three lakes of considerable extent, several rivers and swamps, and bayous innumerable, a lofty mountain was found, which was ascended and the trees upon its top soon felled, permitting an uninterrupted view of the valley below. The grandeur and loveliness of the scene is described as perfectly bewildering. Dr. Chapman, son of the celebrated American artist, who accompanied the expedition, writes that during his whole life in Italy he never looked upon a landscape so enchantingly beautiful, and at the same time so grand and striking. Little time, however, could be spent in viewing the enchanting valley; the great work was still before the party, and the axmen were soon pushed forward upon the trail toward the lost city.

THE FOREST SURROUNDING THE PEACE.

As the explorers cut their way through the forest the trees grew larger and older, showing that the verges of the forest were the last to be abandoned, and had been cultivated long after the interior had become a wilderness. Most of the beasts of prey, natives of the American continent, as well as animals peculiar to tropical climates, were seen in great numbers, and insects innumerable, many of them before unknown to naturalists, gave great annoyance to the adventurers. General Lyon writes that bottom lands of the Mississippi river do not compare with those he found in the Metaltaloyuca country, either for soil, verdure or impenetrability, frequently his whole party not being able to make more than five hundred yards of survey per day.

DESCRIPTION OF THE CITY.

After a dangerous and wearisome work the lost city was finally reached, and for the first time the foot of the Anglo-saxon pressed its streets. With awe and wonder the party gazed upon the works of an extinct race. Trees hundreds of years old were growing among the ruins, showing that the city had been abandoned before the days of Cortez, and the architecture of the buildings is of an order before unknown upon this continent. Some few houses are in a tolerable state of preservation, and still habitable, while their walls are adorned with paintings of rare beauty and merit. Carved doorways and images abound in every street, evincing in their former inhabitants a knowledge of the fine arts not found among the most civilized aboriginal races. Most remarkable of all is, some of these sculptures indicates among the people the existence of the Christian religion. Places for worship are said to be numerous, and upon the reverse of a statuette of a man is carefully carved that emblem of Christianity, the Cross.

Whence this race or what their fate is a mystery. The existence of this city was unknown to the Aztees, and not a tradition concerning them is extant among the Indians who when spoken to respecting them reply, "Antique," "Antique." The doors of the houses were generally closed with rocks, showing the abandonment of the city to have been a preconcerted movement but whether this was caused by civil wars, fears of savage foes or earthquakes, is mere conjecture.

General Lyon will make a thorough exploration of the Metaltaloyuca country, and his report will be received with rare interest. If the few letters received at the capital from the party state facts, the lost city will cause a comotion in the literary world, as its development must throw light upon the history of the lost races of America. The Spanish party who visited it in October say the ruins bear little resemblance to those of Yucatan or any other portion of Spanish America; and their paintings and sculpture show them to be fully as far advanced in the arts and sciences as the most enlightened nations of their own day.

The statements of the Spanish party must be received with many grains of allowance. Americans who have traveled through Yuctan and other old settled States of Mexico concur in the opinion that every fact is greatly exagerated, and that the lost city is but the ruins of some Spanish city, deserted by its inhabitants during the slave insurrection early in the present century. No record of such a city is found in the Archives, and if it was under Spanish rule its existence has faded from the public mind. The country is filled with ruins of the most remarkable character, and which a casual observer would pronounce to be four or five centuries old, but which are known to have been the abodes of elegance and luxury within eighty years.

A GAMBLING SCENE.—In 1849, I was a passenger on the steamer "Star Spangled Banner," from New Orleans to Louisville. She was crowded with people; and, an hour after leaving New Orleans, found perhaps twenty card-tables drawn out, and three or four score of the passengers deeply absorbed in the mystery of the "old sledge," euchre, and poker. All that night and the next day the game went on. As fortune, however, soon singled out and made victims of the poorer and less skilled players, so the numbers gradually decreased until the fourth day out, when only one table was running. Old Bob Brasher, a negro trader, young Ben Sandford a horse trader, and two planters from La Fourche, still held on. Although they had played almost incessantly for four days and nights, yet luck had favored neither party, and they were within a few dollars of even. The "bucking" had been principally between Brasher and Sandford, but henceforth they had kept themselves within the "gentleman's limit"—five hundred dollars. After leaving Memphis the game was renewed and by standers observed that "big play" was on the tapis, as young Sandford was considerably under the influence of liquor, and when in that condition he was known to be a heavy player. Late at night the two traders came together; both had "backing hands," and Louisana and Kentucky bank notes soon covered almost the whole table. The margin of five hundred was soon forgotten, and one, two, three, five hundred better, rapidly passed between them. At last Brasher leaned back from the table, unbuttoned his vest, and took from around his body a belt filled with gold pieces. Laying it down upon the bank notes he exclaimed "Three thousand better!" Sandford became speechless; His face turned deadly pale; he called for a glass of liquor, which he drank never once taking his eyes from the belt of gold. He had exhausted his means in former bets; all his money lay upon the table. At last a thought struck him.

"Ben! here, sir!" he exclaimed.

"Yes, massa," and Sandford's body servant, a fine athletic pure-blood, came to his table.

"Get upon the table, sir!"

Not daring to disobey—as he knew well in that moment of frenzy his young master would send a bullet through his brain did he refuse—the slave tremblingly stepped on the table, crushing the bank notes and gold beneath his feet.

"For the good Lord's sake, massa Ben, Don't bet this nigger off! What will the old missus say when you go home? Oh, massa Ben, please don't!" groaned the boy, but in vain.

"Call you, sir!" shrieked Sandford, at the same time laying down four queen's and an ace.

"An invincible, sir," said Brasher, with a sneer; "four kings and an ace!" And, as Brasher reached for his belt of gold, young Sandford fell to the floor, the blood gushing from his mouth, nose, and ears. With one spring the slave started from the table, dashed through the thin folding doors of the "Social Hall," out on the boiler deck, and, with a half-uttered prayer for the "old missus," he threw himself headlong into the dark waters of the Mississippi, and was seen no more. Death prevented Brasher claiming his spoils. Sandford for weeks lingered on a sick bed, but at last recovered, and forever renounced the gaming table, He "made good," however the money worth of the negro to his winner.

SLIGHTLY MISTAKEN.—A young lady stepped into one of the street cars the other day, says the Augusta (Ga.,) Republican, and dropped her handkerchief upon a vacant seat, as much as to say "taken," while she advanced to the other end of the car to deposit her fare. Meantime a nicely dressed young man jumped in and sat down on the handkerchief, without observing it. The young lady, after paying her fare turned back, discovered to her chagrin her seat was occupied, and sat down opposite, ladies making room for her. But she did not desire to lose her handkerchief, so she looked intently toward the place where she had left it, hesitating whether to ask for it or not. Discovering the direction of her looks, all eyes on the opposite side of the car were soon bent on the young man. Finding himself the object of so much attention, he himself looked and discovered to his horror something white on which he sat, the end peeping out. He mistook its character. To cover it with his hand, and to tuck it nicely away, was the work of a few moments. None in the car but the young lady knew that "something white" was a handkerchief, and hesitating still more to ask him; she lost it.

GEORGA FASHIONS.—In the Gulf States it used to be quite common for negro children, in warm weather, to go around quite naked—a fashion more remarkable for its cheapness than respectability. A Georga lady, who spent a season North, became so much attached to a Massachusetts lady that she insisted that the visit should be returned, which in course of time, was done. The first day at the table, the Yankee lady was horror-struck to see a negro boy of a dozen years, stark naked, come in to wait upon the table. The Geogia lady suspected what caused her guest's looks, and immediately ordered the negro out to dress himself. This order, so unusual to little Sambo, somewhat puzzled him. He had no clothes save an old stock, one of the high old-fashioned kind, which some gentleman had given him. This he buckled around his neck so tight that he was unable to get his eyes lower than the ceiling, and then, to the astonishment of all present, he came marching into the dining-room, exclaming, "Now, missus, I'es dressed and ready!"

ONE of the most remarkable races that ever inhabited the earth is now extinct. They were known as the Gaunches, and were the aborigines of the Canary Islands. In the sixteenth century, pestilence, slavery and the cruelty of the Spaniards, succeeded in totally exterminating them. They are described as having been gigantic in stature, but of a singularly mild and gentle nature. Their food consisted of barley, wheat and goat's milk, and their agriculture was of the rudest kind. They had a religion which taught them of a future state of rewards and punishments after death and of good and evil spirits. They regard the volcano of Teneriffe as a punishment for the bad. The bodies of their dead were carefully embalmed and deposited in catacombs, which still continue to be an object of curiosity to those who visit the island. Their marriage rites were very solemn, and before engaging in them the brides were fattened on milk. At the present day these strange people are totally extinct.

TALLER THAN OUR BIG TREES.—We are in the habit of priding ourselves on the possession of the largest trees in the world, but recent researches in Australia have shown that although the thickness of our California giants may not be equaled, their hights is considerably exceeded by a species of Eucalyptus, a vegetable form charactertistic of Australia. Specimens of various hights have been measured, and the tallest actually subjected to this test gave an altitude of 480 feet; but another, having a circumference of 81 feet at a hight of four feet from the ground, was estimated to be over 500 feet high. The tallest spire in Europe, the Munter of Strasburg, is 466 feet high: the great pyramid of Cheops is 480 feet high, but exceeded by these Australian trees.

A MAN has invented a new and cheap plan of boarding. One of his boarders mesmerizes the rest, and then eats a hearty meal—the mesmerized body is satisfied from sympathy.

A SOCIETY FOR SHORTENING DRESSES.—Short dresses are very charming when they are nicely made, well cut, and not ridiculously too short. From the specimens which we have observed as actually worn, we are inclined, however, to think that the combination of the serviceable with the elegant, is not as yet reached by a very considerable number of ladies, or their dress makers. However, the adoption of dresses of reasonable length for walking does not appear at present to be so entirely beyond the reach of possibility, as it did so not very long ago.

We do see still, however, a much greater propotion of trains than can be considered desirable at any time in walking, and much more now in the condition of the streets and roads consequent on the weather. The inconvenience and ugliness, and dirtiness of these trailing dresses would, we should have imagined, should have brought this fashion to an end long ago. But the regulators of fashion seem to have willed it otherwise, and women (not to speak of men) have suffered.

The long trains, even in well cut dresses, are to long to be graceful. They do not suggest flowing robes, but a ridiculous superfluity of material, which is not by any means elegant. The silk, or satin, or stuff, spread out on the ground, inspires many with a strong desire to walk on it. We have been amused and interested to observe that an attempt is being made (so it is said) to utilize this instinctive desire, so as to promote the adoption of short dresses.

The Presse of Vienne mentions that a society has been established in that city, whose object is to be the suppression of the long trains worn by the Viennese ladies, which "are not only an obstruction to street traffic, but also, by raising enormous clouds of dust, cause considerable danger to the lungs and eyes." The mode of operation of the members of the society is to be, that "the instant they perceive a lady with a long train in the street, they are immediately to tread on the same with such force as to produce a considerable rent in the dress." When the lady arrested in this manner turns for an explanation, she is to receive apologies for the awkwardness of the perpetrator. Should she claim compensation in a court of justice, the society engages to pay all expenses. This society is said to be a secret one. Its members probably dread the odium which would attach to any known setter of his foot upon the offending garments.

A FIENDISH SON.—The Chicago Tribune of December 13th, says:

On Tuesday night a brutal assault was committed by a young man upon his two brothers, his father and his mother. The name of the wretch is Henry Lampier. With his parents, he lives at No. 311 Brown street, in the West Division. His business is that of a teamster Last Tuesday night he failed to return home at the usual hour, and his mother, knowing, that his habits were somewhat dissipated, and fearing that he might have become intoxicated in some one of the numerous saloons that lay on the line of his route home, sent her son George, a boy of 17, in search of him. George went to look for his brother, and saw his team standing in front of George Stenson's saloon on Canalport avenue. He looked into the saloon and saw his brother standing, talking there. Believing that he would soon come home, the lad got on the wagon and began driving the team homeward, when his brother saw him and rushed out. He jumped into the wagon and struck George a Heavy blow, which knocked him into the ditch. George then ran home and told his mother what had happened. She started out followed by her son George. They found that Henry had stopped at another saloon, which the mother entered and succeeded in persuading Henry to return home with her. The boy George again got in the wagon and drove on ahead. Arrived at the house in which the family lived, Henry Lampier suddenly jumped on the wagon and took from it a heavy stake. His mother, fearing his intention, interferred, when he raised the weapon and struck her a fearful blow on the head, felling her to the ground. The father now appeared upon the scene, and was trying to pacify his infuriated son, when he, too, was struck by him and felled. A man named John Pasel at this juncture threw himself upon Lampier and wrested the stake from him. But the latter furious with rage was not to be restrained, and when another of his brothers, a boy of fifteen, endeavored to reason with him, he, too, was knocked down. A crowd by this time had gathered, and Lampier was overpowered and given into custody.

CALIFORNIA ABROAD.—An Eastern Magazine, the New York Exchange and Review, discourses with regard to the present condition and future prospects of California as follows: "The statement from California that for nine months of the present year the value of exportation of wheat and flour from San Francisco was $9,347,000, shows that the agricultural interests of that State are extending. A few years ago wheat was carried to California to feed a population busy in the search for gold. Now that region not only supplies all its own people, but has a surplus of cereals to send abroad. From these advantages the future prospects of California may be prognosticated. Every year the cultivation of the ground increases. Fields and vineyards are planted upon virgin soil, and the crops of grapes, wines and grain are satisfactory to the people of the State. With the agriculture of the great Pacific State, her commerce must also increase. Already the new line to China and Japan is bringing to her the rich trade of the Indies—that prize for which the kingdoms of Europe struggled so long. The opening of the great Pacific Railroad will insure to San Francisco the commerce of the world, which, comming from Europe and America, will pass through that great city, and be met by the commerce of the great Asiatic nation.

DUTCH FLAT ENQUIRER.

SATURDAY, JAN. 18, 1868.

LIBERAL ADVERTISING.—Many merchants, lawyers, doctors and other professional men regard liberal advertising as a waste of money—numbers refusing on the same plea to even advertise at all. These men were never more mistaken. Every day instances are brought to our notice where men have made independent fortunes by availing themselves of the use of the public press. A case in point comes under our immediate observation which we recommend to the attention of the class of men of which we have spoken. A private letter from Dr. C. H. Tozer, a gentleman who has advertised extensively in the ENQUIRER and other journals throughout the State, after ordering out his advertisment in the ENQUIRER says:

"I thank you for your kindness to me, and for many favors, and would say to the public that I am able to live in comfortable circumstances, and all in consequence of advertising; as I can say I have not any more ability than many others who are now laboring under difficulties."

PETTY LARCENY.—On the 9th inst., Siemon, a gentlemen connected with the art tonsorial, was arrested and brought before Judge Brown, at the instance of A. Glockler on the charge of petty larceny. The circumstances of the case as near as we can learn are as follows: Glockler it seems owed Siemon a ring, and the evening previous to the arrest Siemon called at Glockler's store, for the purpose of obtaining it. After examining a case of rings set out for that purpose, Siemon returned them saying that none of them suited him. Immediately after Glockler accused him of stealing one of the rings, which he denied strongly, and offered to be searched, at the same time unbuttoned his coat, and the ring fell to the floor. Siemon after having his case postponed several times' filed an affidavit, for a change of venue, on account of the bias of the court; a change was granted and the case carried to Cisco. The total value of the property involved does not exceed five dollars.

SINGING SCHOOL.—Pursuant to public call, a number of gentlemen of musical proclivities met at the School House on last Thursday evening to consult upon a plan for establishing a singing school in this place. Mr. Houser was called to the chair, and stated that correspondence with Mr. Clark, singing school teacher of Grass Valley, had been opened; and read a communication from that gentlemen offering to give a course of lessons at this place for the sum of $125, irrespective of the number of the class, and exclusive of wood, lights room rent, etc., On motion of Mr. Boke, it was ordered that "a committee of three be appointed to solicit aid and assistance in establishing the school, from the citizens at large, and to report on next Monday evening." Messrs J. Boke, E. W. Towle, and C. W. Staples, were appointed the committee, when on motion the meeting adjourned.

THUS WE GLIDE.—On Friday evening the 10th inst., a number of the young folks, and some not so young, seated in sleighs started for Gold Run, to have a dance and a good time generally. It is useless for us to say that they had a break down or two, and that some of the party were compelled to walk a considerable portion of the way, that was what they went for a "break down." Arriving at Gold Run, the party congregated in Jewell's Hall, and whiled away the fleeting hours, to the dulcet strains of Austin's fiddle, and Glascock's banjo.

Ladies say the new cocoa-nut waterfalls are just the thing to wear with a gourd dress.—Sutter Sentinel.

What in thunder is a gourd dress? We are up to any kind of waterfall, but the goard gets us.—Colusa Sun.

A gourd dress is—well, it's a gourd dress.—Ask your wife, if you have one, if you havn't go and get one; she'll tell you what a gourd dress is.—Exchange.

Why, Mrs. Suratt was hung in gored dress. We are surprised at the editor of the Colusa Sun, asking such a question as that.

THANKS.—We return thanks to the Hon. E. L. Bradley, for several very important public documents. Also to the Hon. W. Higby M. C. for a like favor, and to Mr. Ellis Edwards, for a similar remembrance.

Since the above was in type we have received an almost unlimited number of documents from Hon. E. L. Bradley, and from Ellis Edwards Esq., also documents from Hon. C. A Tweed. We appreciate the favors of these gentlemen very highly.

CAVED IN.—On Monday last the roof of the building, formerly occupied by Philip Farr as a saloon, caved in with the snow. It was fortunately unoccupied at the time.

THE NEW PAPER.—We have received copies of the new Democratic paper at Sacramento called the State Capitol Reporter. It is about the size of the Union, and neatly printed.

JOHN MEYER'S of the Old Corner sent us down a bottle with a very suspicious smell about it, a few days since; for which he will please accept our thanks.

SNOW.—The Snow after the late storm at this place, measured nearly three feet on the level. It made shoveling snow a very lively occupation for a time.

RUNAWAY.—On Tuesday morning last, while Mr. Morris was sleighing a load of passengers from the Depot to the Flat, his sleigh, owing to bad driving, became embedded and brought to a full stop in a wayside snowbank, when the male passengers got out to assist in extricating the vehicle, leaving a lady and her two children aboard. After much pushing, pulling, and whipping, the sleigh was got into the road again when, suddenly and without warning, and before the driver or any of the passengers could get into the sleigh, the horses sprang away at the top of their speed, plunging and rearing violently, the driver, for a time, holding fast to the reins, and floundering through the snowbank beside them till dragged from his feet and "snaked" head-foremost along, when his hold gave way and the frightened animals dashed on without check or control. At sight of the flying sleigh with the lady and her children aboard, the passengers floundered wildly forward in pursuit, stumbling at every step, tripping themselves and each other up, and vociferously shouting, "Whoa!" to the horses, and "Stop'em!" to the spirits of the air. The lady in the sleigh, at first conciousness of her situation, folded her children in her arms and held them tightly to the seat, then turned an appealing look behind, her face reflecting the palor of the surrounding landscape. On dashed the horses; and the lady, comprehending that assistance could not reach her, and arriving at the brow of the Slaughter house Hill down which the horses were about to whirl herself and children perhaps to destruction, cast the horoscope of her chances in throwing her children and self from the sleigh; and springing to her feet, with heroic firmness, launched them overboard and sprang after them. With added fright at sight of fluttering bodies flying from the sleigh, the horses sprang down the hill at accelerated gallops. A moment later, and the pursuers, with apprehension written all over their faces, came up with the lady and her children all safely wading toward the road. Master Ralph, engaged in "snowballing Ma," as he alleged, "for throwing him out of the sleigh," and little Miss Bell, petulantly shaking her head and declaring in ill used tone; "Ma, I'll never go sleigh ing with you again' if this is the way you do!"

BAD BOYS.—We have in our town quite a number of boys, who make a practice of going along the sidewalks, and opening the doors of saloons barber shops, and stores, on windy nights "just for fun," or go out in the middle of the street and throw snowballs at the windows for the purpose of hearing the glass jingle, and annoying the proprietors. Now this may be very fine sport for the boys, but the parties having to replace the glass can't appreciate the joke. Some of these boys are quite large enough to be engaged in some more worthy occupation. We do not for a moment apprehend that their parents are aware of their scandelous conduct, and we would therefore recommend to the parties subjected to these petty annoyances, that they report their grievances to the parents of the boys, and then if the nuisance is not abated deal with them, through the law.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—On Saturday morning last, as Mr. A. O. Pearse was engaged in cutting down a tree, near the Kersarge Mill, a limb broke off and fell strking him in the forehead crushing his skull, and killing him instantly. The snow being very deep it took quite a number of men, assisted by two horses a full day to bring his body to this place for interment. He was a native of Hope, Maine, where he has relatives residing. The deceased was a man respected and esteemed, by all who knew him. His funeral took place from the Union Church, at 2 o'clock on Sunday last.

ACCIDENT.—On Saturday last a man named Summers, whilst engaged in sliding planks, on the Yuba Ditch, slipped down the hill, turned two or three summersets and struck upon his hip, from the effect of which it is paralyzed. The man was brought to Alta, and Dr. Nelson called in, who rendered the wounded man all the assistance within his power.

ABOUT half past six on Thursday evening the building owned by Wm. P. Thomas situated nearly opposite J. Meyer's saloon, caved down with a crash, startling nearly everybody in town. Two or three men passing at the time came very nearly being covered up by the falling building. It was crushed by too great a weight of snow on the roof.

MITE.—The Mite society met on Tuesday last at the residence of Philip Farr, where all joined in a social dance, and had a good time generally. The next meeting will be on Tuesday night at the residence of Mr. Halsey. A general invitation is extended.

NEW PAPER.—We learn by a private letter from Santa Clara that a new paper is about being started in that place, to be called the Santa Clara Union, the first number to appear about the first of February. Swinnerton and Bannister are to be the publishers.

WE call the attention of our Merchants to the advertisement of Messrs Collins Wheaton & Co., wholesale dealers in Butter, Bacon etc., We are confident that if you should give them a call they will give you entire satisfaction.

COMMUNICATED.

How plainly discernable is the fact that for man to be perfect is an impossibility. Tangible evidence in favor of this theory is to be seen daily. Men may be more or less correct in their habits; but to be perfect implies something that is divine. Who is there in this world of sin free from all the thousand and one vices with which they are daily surrounded. You seldom go into company but what the weaknesses of some acquaintance or friend is thoroughly ventilated by some of the parties present, who are perhaps more sinful than the poor absent being they so mercilessly "haul over the coals." Reflect before you attack the private character of any one, no matter how low they may apparently be in a moral or social point of view. A ragged and sweat begrimed suit of clothes does not make vile hands, nor does a broadcloth one necessitate refinement. If you regard any one who may chance to be thrown into your company as beneath you, observe, before you spurn him from your presence and see if he is not trying to raise himself in the moral and social scale. If upon reflection you think that he is, do all in your power, conveniently to assist him. A man who is too low for you to associate with is too low for you to talk about; and a man who is good enough for you to keep company with should be as good as yourself if not better, and you should never find fault with your equals nor superiors. Are we not all of equally lowly birth? Does not the prince and the beggar depend alike upon the bounties of God for life? Each breathes the air with equal freedom. God sends the rain alike "upon the just and the unjust." When any of His creatures show symptoms of a desire to do better they receive His helping hand. Such being the case why should we not be equally as willing to render our feeble aid.

IN a community as large and as permanently located as the residents of Dutch Flat, the use and necessity of a public library is keenly felt. Around us are growing up the men and women who are to fill our places in society in a few years. To see that their minds are properly stored with useful knowledge; to place within their reach valuable statistical, historical and biographical works, becomes a solemn duty entailed upon us. If we would see them grow up a credit to us and an honor to themselves we must place at their disposal, in their youth, the means of ingrafting into their minds useful knowledge. All are not able to fill their private libraries with the useful works of the day, but by combining means our town could support a library that would not only be a credit to it, but would be the means of disseminating much useful knowledge among our people, and would enable many who from pecuniary motives are compelled to mope away their leisure hours in idleness and indolence to turn them to advantage. The long, lonesome, dreary winter evenings would be made pleasant and useful. Not only would such an institution be advantageous to the young, but the heads of families, and young women and men could, and would turn it to a good purpose. The undertaking may appear too great for our community, to some who have not examined the matter carefully. One hundred memberships at five dollars each would purchase quite a little pile of books, and the monthly dues at the nominal sum of one dollar would gradually build up a library of no mean importance. At any rate where we have not a single book attainable by the public we could soon have several hundred. Let us see who will be the first to move in the matter.

CHANGED.—We see by the last number of the Napa Register, that N. E. White has purchased and will henceforth conduct that paper.

A BILL has passed the Lower House of Congress making eight hours a legal days service on all Government works.

A TRUE STORY.—Tripping down the stair way once long ago, we fell, shattering a large, lighted fluid lamp. In a moment the blaze wrapped us around like a fiery serpent. Every tragedy has a comic side: Bridget tossed the baby on the bed, and ran for water; aunt Mary seized the spread to extinguish the flames and pulled baby down on the floor; Jane came up from the kitchen and put out ever light then burning "because the house was afire," and Bridget returning with a tub of water, tumbled down, upset the water, and bumped her nose. Meanwhile, we rolled over and over on the parlor floor, till the flame was extinguished, when one arm was found to be terribly burned.

Then how quickly Davis' Pain Killer soothed the pain, and to-day, with a hand and arm unmarred by any scar, we write the praises of Pain Killer, valuable for many an ill and ache;—Manchester (N. H.) Every Month.

The Remedy for Curing

Consumption, Asthma, Croup, Diseases of the Throat, Bronchits, Pains and Oppressions of the Chest or Lungs, Difficult breathing, and all Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs,

ITS action is expectorant, alterative, sudorific, diaphoretic, and diuretic, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS and PURIFIES the BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action and imparts strength to the whole system. It is warranted to give entire satisfaction, even in the most confirmed cases of consumption, and not to produce costiveness (as do most remedies) or effect the head, as it contains no opium in any form. It is PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. There is no necessity for so many deaths by consumption, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it, if only taken in time.

A THRILLING INCIDENT. MRS. INGALLS, A BAPTIST MISSIONARY IN BURMAH, AMONG THE BUDDHIST PRIESTS.—We were pleasantly entertained this morning by Mrs. Ingalls, a missionary from Burmah, who came to our office, accompanied by President Sears, of Brown's University, and while here related many interesting experiences of her missionary labors, and made frequent reference to the valuable aid afforded her by the "Pain Killer," which is she says frequently called by the natives the "God-Medicine," and sometimes worshipped by them. One instance she relates as follows: "One stormy day I was sent for to visit one of their Godmen, or high priest, who had been severely wounded, the messenger saying that he was killed. I told him it was no use then for me to go, as my medicine could not raise the dead. But he persisted, saying, "the God-medicine would not surely fail to do him some good." But I still hesitated fearing for the reputation of my medicine, which had become a powerful aid in giving me access to the natives. At length I yielded, and taking in my hand a bottle of the "Pain Killer," the charm that had opened the door, I followed my guide through the monastry into the inner or most sacred place where lay the wounded man upon the ground, a ghastly object, covered with blood and apparently dead. I knew something of the dangers that surrounded me, and, notwitstanding my trust in Him who said "I will never leave nor forsake you," I could not wholly divest myself of fear. Standing beside the dying man, I said to the monks or priests who had followed me in, or were there before me, that my medicines could nor raise the dead, nor bring back the departed spirit; and should it fail to restore their friend, they ought not to condemn the medicine. Still I would do all in my power for the wounded man; but to begin with I must have some bandages. They had none, and knew not where to get any. I pointed to the altar curtain; but that could not be touched, except by the high priest. It was the sacred yellow cloth. I started to leave, saying it would be useles for me to remain, as I could do nothing without means. But they would not let me go. The God-man must be saved, and I might, for this purpose, use the sacred cloth. I speedily laid "profane" hands on it, and shortly converted it into bandages, with which, saturated in "Pain Killer," I bound up the wounds of the still insensible man.

I then asked for a cup, in which to prepare some "Pain Killer," but the sacred cups of their gods, used only in their religeous rites, and never touched by hands profane, were the only ones to be had. To save the God-man I might use one of them, though no one of those present dared take it and give it to me. I took one, however, and prepared in it, and gave to the unconcious sufferer, a strong dose of the Pain Killer. The man soon began to show signs of returning conciousness." From this time her influence with the priest, as well as with the lower castes, was almost unbounded, and for this she felt herself greatly indebted to the "Pain Killer." She said that year by year she learned to place more and more reliance upon it as a remedy for all diseases of the stomach—even cholera, so fatal there—as well as for all the billious affections so prevalent in that climate; and that it seldom fails to realize all her expectations, and often surprised her by the promptness and efficacy of its action.

COMMUNICATED.

A GREAT LUNG MEDICINE.—There is one medicine, which has been prepared for the cure of affections of the lungs, which has been very largely used and tested, which we wish to recommend to the public for the reason that we can do it with all truth and sincerity, believing as we do, that it is not, and never has been surpassed for excellence and thorough efficacy.

That medicine is "ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM." It is prepared by a chemical process and apparatus of more than ordinarily costly nature, and it is beyond all question a never failing and and thoroughly complete cure for coughs and affections of the lungs, even when the latter are of a very serious and threatening character. One excellent physician goes so far as to state publicly over his own signature, that he has a perfect conviction that deep-seated pulmonary consumption has been cured by the use of Allen's Lung Balsam; and there are a number of the most respectable testimonials, that it has in innumerable instances effectually cured very severe coughs of long standing, accompanied with cold chills, night sweats and diarrhœa—the system of the sufferer being, in some cases very much prostrated.

We do not hesitate to say, from our knowledge of the virtue of this balsam, and from the entire confidence we have in the character of its proprietors, and the statement of certain citizens who have repeatedly used the medicine, that it is really one of the best things ever yet discovered for the cure of the particular maladids for which it is designed. We will only add let every one who has an affection of the lungs, get a bottle of Allen's Lung Balsam, and give it a fair trial. Having done this, they will need no testimonials to convince them of its extaordinary merits.

HOPE FOR THE AFFLICTED.—In another part of this paper will be found the advertisement of the celebrated Institute established by Dr. J. C. YOUNG in 1850. In this age of deceit and charlatanism it is a boon to the suffering to point out to them where they are sure of obtaining the wished for relief and cure. Under the care of the skillful Doctor the sick and troubled can divest themselves of their burdens of pain; lay aside their cross, and secure health and happiness. If you are sick or in trouble, do not hesitate. Read the advertisements and follow the advice. Do not forget the number or the manner of directing your letters. Consultation Office, 540, Washington street, San Francisco.

MEDICAL ADVICE.—DR. WM. K. DOHERTY'S Medical and Surgical Institute is becoming a sine quo non to the welfare of our State and health of our citizens; and his rapidly spreading reputation, although it may excite surprise, is but the signal of skill, and follows as the natural result of such a cause. We are personally acquainted with gentlemen who had suffered for years under chronic disease, and who had taken advantage of every available means that promised relief, but without success, until they called upon Dr. Doherty, who, in an incredibly short space of time, has given them entire relief. It is gratifying to announce this fact, because the Dr. is a gentleman who seeks, not by defamation of others to establish his reputation or ruin of another's fame. The Doctor conducts his own Institute in such a manner must be gratifying to all his patients. He examines, advises, and recommends without charge, and the patient, after hearing his terms for treatment, can accept or reject at pleasure. In no case does the Doctor make a charge unless he effects a cure. This he is able to do, because he feels the confidence which long experience has given, and no doubt consolation which appertain to that confidence. Persons afflicted with either acute or chronic disease, would do well to consult the Doctor; at all events, it can do no harm, as for consultation he asks no fee; nor does he insist on obedience to his advice unless the patient places himself under his care. His offices are on Sacramento street, opposite the Pacific Mail Steamship office.—News

SARSAPARILLIAN!

(PREPARED FROM VACUO.)

The Curative Principle of Sarsaparilla enters largely into the composition of

R. R. R.

RESOLVENT.

One Bottle of Resolvent Better than Ten Large Bottles of Sarsaparilla.

One Bottle will Purify the Blood, and Expel Corruption from the Body!

So swift is this remedy in entering into the circulation, that it has been detected in the blood and urine in six minutes after it has been taken.

☞ 1 BETTER THAN 10 ☜

R. R. R. Resolvent cures with astonishing rapidity every form of Chronic, Scrofulous and Skin Diseases, and exterminates all corruption from the human system.

One bottle of Dr. Radway's Renovating Resolvent contains more of the active curative principles of the best Jamaica Sarsaparilla, (Sarsaparillian,) than Ten of the largest size bottles of the mixture sold under the name of Sarsaparilla.

The process adopted by Dr. Radway in securing extracts (prepared in vacuo,) of Medicinal Roots, Plants, Herbs, and other vegetables possessing great curative properties over Scrofula, Chronic, Syphilic and skin diseases, that enters into the composition of the Renovating Resolvent, produces only ONE OUNCE of the pure extract out of 20 lbs of crude roots. The Inert matter that enters so generally in the large bottle mixtures and prepared under the officinal or pharmacopeia formula, is, by Dr. Radway's process, cast aside as rubbish.

One teaspoonful of the Resolvent is sufficient for a dose for all Skin, Salt Rheum, Pimples, Blotches, Sores and Eruptions of the Skin, Humors in the Blood, &c.

One teaspoonful, three times a day, will, in a few days, make the Blood pure, the Skin clear, the Eyes bright, the Complexion smooth and transparent, the Hair strong, and remove all Sores, Pimples, Blotches, Pustules, Tetters, Cankers, &c., from the Head, Face, Neck, Mouth and Skin. It is pleasant to take, and the dose is small.

The first dose that is taken seizes on the disease and commences its work of resolving away all diseased deposits, Purifying the Blood, and driving corruption from the system.

The Renovating Resolvent, if used in any of the following named complaints, will positively cure the patient:

Skin Diseases, Caries of the Bones, Humors in the Blood, Constitutional, Chronic and Scrofulous Diseases, Scrofula, Syphilis, Fever, Ulcers, Sores, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Rickets, Scald Head, Cankers, Sore Legs, White Swellings, Glandular Swellings, Boils, Nodes, Sore Ears, Sore Eyes, Strumous Discharges from the Ear, Opthalmia, Itch, Constitutional Debility, Skin Eruptions, Wasting and Decay of the Body, Pimples and Blotches, Tumors, Cancerous Affections, Dyspepsia, Water Brash, Neuralgia, Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Diseases of the Kidneys, Bladder, Urethra, Strictures, Difficulty of Passing Water, Calculous Deposits &c.

ALARMING INCREASE OF BLADDER, KIDNEY and CALCULOUS DISEASES.

The annual reports of the Health Commssioners of different cities, show a great increase of deaths from diseases of the Kidneys and Urinary Organs—RADWAY'S RENOVATING RESOLVENT is the only remedy that has dissolved calculous concretion.

Its SOLVENT, diuretic, lithontriptic and tonic properties exceed that of any medicine in the world; it readily assimilates with the fluids, and promotes their exit through the Kidneys, Urethra and Bladder, removing calculous obstructions, and correcting all derangements of these organs.

So swift is this remedy in passing into the circulation, that it has been detected in the urine in six minutes after it has been taken; by adding to the liquid when cold a few pieces of starch, then a few drops of nitric acid, the liquid will change to a blue color. When brick dust, or a thick white deposit, like the white of an egg, (albumen,) is detected in the vessel, or bloody discharges from the urethra, or micturating in drops, accompanied by a burning or scalding pain—the RESOLVENT should be used and R. R. RELIEF rubbed on the spine, &c.

RADWAY'S PILLS being an aperient, soothing, and tonic laxative, are the only purgative medicine safe to administer in these difficulties; their mild soothing and healing properties produce evacuations without irritating the mucous membranes of the bowels, kidneys, ureter, bladder, &c., or causing straining when at stool.

Price of Resolvent, $1 per bottle, or 6 for $5. Pills 25 cts. R. R. Relief, 50 cts. per bottle. Principal Depot, 87 Maiden Lane, N. Y. Sold by all Druggists and Country Merchants.

With this recipe before the community, and evidence of effects meeting them on all sides, the success of DR. DRAKE stands founded upon the rock of truth. Almost every family has some cases of suffering which the PLANTATION BITTERS will alleviate and cure.

They are recommended by the highest medical authorities, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and harmless.

NOTICE.—Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters in bulk or by the gallon, is a swindler and impostor. It is put up only in our log cabin bottle. Beware of bottles refilled with imitation deleterious stuff for which several persons are already in prison. See that every bottle has our United States stamp over the cork unmutilated, and our signature on steel plate side label.

Sold by respectable dealers throughout the habitable globe.

MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT.

The merits of this Liniment are well known. Its effects are instantaneous, soothing and wonderful.

Cuts, bruises, sprains and swellings are so common and certain to occur in every family, that a bottle of this Liniment is the best investment that can be made.

It is more certain than the doctor—it saves time in sending for the doctor—it is cheaper than the doctor, and should never be dispensed with.

READ THE FOLLOWING:

"I take pleasure in recommending the Mexican Mustang Liniment as a valuable and indispensable article for Sprains, Sores, Scratches or Galls on Horses. Our men have used it for Burns, Bruises, Sores, Rheumatism, etc., and all say it acts like magic."

DUTCH FLAT ENQUIRER.

THE ACTORS' PROTEST AGAINST THE REPEAL OF THE SUNDAY LAW.—The following protest, made by the actors of San Francisco against the repeal of the Sunday Law, was read by the Rev. Dr. Scudder, before commencing his sermon on Sunday evening. It is as follows:

To the Honorable Senate, and Assembly, of the State of California:—The undersigned, members of the theatrical profession, having been informed of a notice of Mr. Russ, to introduce a bill which will have the effect of legalizing theatrical exhibitions on the Sabbath day, would respectfully protest against the passage of said bill, because it is against Christian decency, against morality, and renders impossible that rest which the all wise God, and experience of mankind, alike declare to be necessary to the body of man, to say nothing of the soul. We give seven exhibitions each week already—six in the evening and one on Saturday afternoon. A seventh is certainly unnecessary, and in no other city over which the "stars and stripes" float is it tolerated. We, therefore, as parents and heads of families, and as members of the profession, hailed the present law as a blessing, and look upon the proposed change as a step backward, which we cannot but view with unfeigned sorrow. We trust ourselves entirely to your own sense of right and the eternal fitness of things, to make no change, and least of all, a change for the worse. All of which is respectfully submitted."

CONSCIENCE-STRICKEN. — On New Year's day, says the Stockton Independent, a little package of paper, containing a five dollar gold piece, was found on the floor in a store on Main street, between San Joaquin and Sutter streets. On the paper snugly wrapped around the coin were written words intimating that three years ago the proprietor of the store had made a mistake in giving change, and that the money returned was the amount paid. The party who received it knew of the error at the time, but carried away the money, consoling his conscience, as he did so, that the blunder was none of his business. As time passed, however, the custodian of the gold became uneasy, until at last the wrong he had done loomed up in his conscience as an evil of altogether great a magnitude to carry longer through life without making reparation, hence, he returned the spondulix to its proper owner. He wanted to commence the new year with a clear conscience, and in doing so he set an example which many thousands should follow.

THE NEW CONTINENT.—The Honolulu Advertiser has the following in regard to the discovery of the new continent in the Arctic:

In confirmation of the statement made of the probable existence of coal on the newly discovered Wrangell's Land, we may add here that Captain Lewis, of the Corinthian, assures us that coal is found along the shore near Cape Lisburne. He once picked up a bucket full that had been washed by the sea, for ages, perhaps, took it on board, and found it answered for fuel as well as the best Anthracite He also found birds resembling the American partridge very abundant there, and a great variety of flowers in full bloom in the month of August. He collected a bouquet of several varieties, which, though beautiful, were generally devoid of much fragrance.

A TOUCHING INCIDENT.—A young minister went out to preach, and observed, during his discourse, a lady who seemed much affected. After meeting, he concluded to pay her a visit and see what the impressions of her mind were. He approached her thus:

"Well, madam, I see you were affected much to-day during preaching?"

"La, me," said the lady. "I'll tell you. About six years ago me and my husband came here, and all the property we had was a donkey. Husband died, and me and the beast were left alone. At last the beast died, and to tell you th truth, your voice put me so much in mind of that poor critter, that I couldn't help taking on and crying about it right in meeting."

No one who wishes that conversation should be pleasant to his neighbors as well himself, should speak more than two or three sentences at once. However much he may have to say, it will be all the more agreeably said for giving others the opportunity of assenting, illustrating, qualifying, or even contradicting. The ball needs to be returned by the opposite player to make a lively game.—Blackwood's Magazine.

A CARD FROM THE AMERICAN WATCH COMPANY Of Waltham, Mass.

This Company beg leave to inform the public that they commenced operations in 1850, and their factory now covers four acres of ground, and has cost more than a million dollars, and employs over 700 operatives. They produce 75,000 Watches a year, and make and sell not less than one-half of all the watches sold in the United States.

The difference between their manufacture and the European, is briefly this: European are made almost entirely by hand, and the result is of necessity a lack of that uniformity, which is indispensable to correct time-keeping. Both the eye and the hand of the most skillful operative must vary. But it is a fact that, except watches of the higher grades, are the product of the cheapest labor of Switzerland and the result is the worthless Ancres, Lepines and so-called Patent Levers—which soon cost more in attemptep repairs, than their original cost. Common workmen, boys and women, buy the rough separate parts of these watches from various factories, polish and put them together, and take to the nearest watch merchant, who stamps and engraves them with any name or brand that may be ordered.

How American Watches are made.

The American Waltham Watch is made by no such uncertain process—and by no such incompetent workmen. All the Company's operations, from the reception of the raw materials to the completion of the watch, are carried on under one roof, and under one skillful and competent direction. But the great distinguishing feature of their watches, is the fact that their several parts are all made by the finest, the most perfect and delicate machinery ever brought to the aid of human industry. Every one of the more than a hundred parts of every watch is made by a machine—that infallibly reproduces every succeeding part with the most unvarying accuracy. It was only necessary to make one perfect watch of any particular style and then to adjust the hundred machines necessary to reproduce every part of that watch, and it follows that succeeding watches must be like it.

The Company respectfully submit their watches on their merits only. They claim to make

A Better Article for the Money

by their improved mechanical processes than can be made under the old fashioned handicraft system. They manufacture watches of every grade, from a good, low-priced and substantial article, in solid silver hunting cases, to the finest chronometer; and also ladies' watches in plain gold or the finest enamelled and jeweled cases; but the indispensable requisite of all their watches is that they shall be GOOD TIME-KEEPERS. It should be remembered that, except their single lowest grade named the "Home Watch Company, Boston," ALL watches made by them

ARE FULLY WARRANTED

by a special certificate, and this warrantee is good at all times against the Company or its agents.

MEDICAL.

THE SCIENCE OF HEALTH!

Every Man His Own Physician.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS,

AND

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT!

Disorders of the Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

The Stomach is the great centre which influences the health or disease of the system—Abused or debilitated by excess—indigestion, offensive breath and physical prostration are the natural consequences. Allied to the brain, it is the source of headaches, mental depression, nervous complaints and unrefreshing sleep. The Liver becomes affected and generates bilious disorders, pains in the side, &c. The Bowels sympathize by Costiveness, Diarrhœa and Dysentery. The principal action of these Pills is on the stomach, and the liver, lungs, bowels and kidneys participate in their recuperative and regenerative operation.

Erysipelas and Salt Rheum,

Are two of the most common and virulent disorders prevalent on this continent, to these the Ointment is especially antagonistic, its "modus operandi" is first to eradicate the venom and then complete the cure.

Bad Legs, Old Sores, and Ulcers.

Cases of many years' standing, that have pertinaciously refused to yield to any other remedy or treatment, have invariably succumbed to a few applications of this powerful unguent.

Eruptions on the Skin.

Arising from a bad state of the blood of chronic diseases, are eradicated, and a clear and transparent surface regained by the restorative action of this Ointment. It surpasses many of the cosmetics and other toilet appliances in its power to dispel rashes and other disfigurements of the face.

Female Complaints.

Whether in the young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these tonic medicines display so decided an influence that a marked improvement is soon perceptible in the health of the patient. Being a purely vegetable preparation, they are a safe and reliable remedy for all classes of Females in every condition of health and station of life.

Piles and Fistula.

Every form and feature of these prevalent and stubborn disorders is eradicated locally and entirely by the use of this emolient; warm fomentations should precede its application. Its healing qualities will be found to be thorough and invariable.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following cases:

Bunions,	Piles,	Sore Legs,
Burns,	Rheumatism,	Sore Breasts,
Chilblains,	Ringworm,	Sore Heads,
Fistula,	Salt Rheum,	Sore Throats,
Gout	Scalds,	Sprains,
Stiff Joints,	Tetter.	Ulcers.
Lumbago,	Skin Diseases	Venereal Sores,
Sores of all kinds,	Mercurial Eruptions,
Swelled Glands,	Wounds of all kinds.

CAUTION.—None are genuine unless the words "HOLLOWAY, NEW YORK AND LONDON," are discernible as a Water Mark in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot or box: the same may be plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

SAN FRANCISCO, ...CALIFORNIA.
NO CURE, NO PAY.

THIS CELEBRATED INSTITUTE has enjoyed on this coast an uninterrupted success of fourteen years, and has become one of the renowned Hospitals of the age. What the celebrated Lock Hospital is to London, and the no less renowned establishment of Ricord is to Paris, this Institute has become to the Pacific coast. The thousands annually received and cured place it in point of number of patients among the very first of the world, and the success of its treatment ranks it second to none.

PRIVATE DISEASES IN MALES and IRREGULARITIES IN FEMALES are the great destroyers of health. They insidiously attack the system and gradually undermine and destroy it; they drive the bloom from the cheek, the lustre from the eye, the strength from the frame; they give to the world puny and diseased offspring, and poison, through successive generations the race of man. The marks can be seen in Scrofula, Consumption, Cripples, the Idiotic, the Paralytic, the Insane, etc.

There is no more terrible scourge to the human race than those diseases arising from the contamination of Venerial Poison. The mildest forms, by retreating to the blood, hold over the afflicted one, the destruction that is liable at any moment to fall and blight—to utterly destroy—all earthly hopes.

MERCURY, recognized as the most fatal medical enemy to man, combining with the Venereal, doubles his dangers. Those who have been treated with that pernicious mineral poison are not cured; the disease has only assumed a new form.

Do not be satisfied with partial cures that leave the poison to crawl through the system, eating its way into the tissues and organs beneath the apparently smooth surface, to burst out in the future with a virulence that will baffle the effects of medicine. WHEN PERFECT CURES can be obtained by consulting a physician whom long practice and thorough investigation into the causes of DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS enables to determine at once the nature of the disease.

In all cases entrusted to the Doctor's care, PERFECT, SPEEDY and PERMANENT Cures are Always Guaranteed.

In syphilis and its adjuncts; Gonnorrhœa and its accompanying diseases; and all diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, and prostate; Seminal Weakness; Diseases of the Heart and Lungs; Dyspepsia; Indigestion, Impotency; Incipient consumption, and all diseases of the urinary organs, in either sex, cure always warranted, or NO PAY REQUIRED, at the

Private Medical Institute,

Seminal Weakness or Spermatorrhœa.

The young man who experiences that growing weakness in his muscular and mental organization, should stop to consider whence it arises. He will find in the weakness of the back, trembling of the limbs, disordered digestion unaccountable failing of the powers of the mind, distaste for society, dread of impending trouble, forebodings of evil, sleeplessness, troubled and lascivious dreams, accompanied by growing deafness, loss of muscular power, and numerous other symptons of disorganization, the positive traces of that most terrible and destructive of all diseases Seminal Weakness—wasting away his powers, destroying his hope of life and manhood, and dragging him along the broken path of his existence towards a premature and loathsome grave. To him who finds his life dribbling out in the discharge of the vital principle of existence in nocturnal and diurnal emissions, the mere cessation of its appearance brings no assurance of relief.

Marriage, that holy office, the safeguard and hope of manhood, brings to such an one no hope of cure, but adds to his misery in the knowledge that the one who looks to him for so much of her happiness, is a victim to this evil, and an innocent companion of his punishment. He adds to his misery and disorder until hope leaves him. There is no rescue except in proper and skillful treatment. Consult then, at once, a physician whom long practice and careful research has made thoroughly conversant with every phase of the disease. Those who have become the victims of solitary vices, that dreadful, fascinating and destructive habit, which fills thousands of sick-rooms with paralytics and consumptives, and hundreds of untimely graves with its misguided victims, should consult, without a moment's delay, one who will sympathize with their sufferings. To such the Doctor would especially address himself, giving to each and all assurance of a PERFECT and PERMANENT CURE, without hindrance to business, change of diet, or fear of exposure.

Do not forget the address. See below.

Important to Females.

When a female is in trouble or afflicted with disease and requires medical or surgical assistance, the enquiry should be, Where is there a physician who is fully competent to administer relief, and whose respectable standing in society recommends him to the confidence of the community? The Doctor understanding how imperatively necessary these requirements are, feels called upon to interpose, and beg the attention of the afflicted to the fact that he has been a Professor of Obstetrics and Female Diseases for twenty years, and is fully qualified to administer in all cases, both medically and surgically, not in a superficial manner, but in as thorough a manner as years of study and practice—both in hospitals and private families—can make, to save them from the hands of the unqualified, unscrupulous and designing. There fore families can rely upon him as upon a father. All in affliction can find in him one who will feel and sympathize with and befriend them in trouble—one in whose secrecy the utmost confidence can be placed. Consultation by letter or otherwise, FREE. See address below.

THE CELEBRATED FEMALE REMEDIES, compounded from the private prescription of Dr. Young, have now obtained a most extended popularity, and are correctly viewed to be the safest and surest remedies for the complaints for which they are applied. The constantly accruing testimonials of their efficacy declare them to be pre-eminently superior in their action. No lady should be without these Renovating Agents. None genuine unless procured at this office.

DR. PERRAULT'S studies have been almost exclusively devoted to the cure of the various forms of Nervous and Physical Debility, the results of injurious habits acquired in youth, which usually terminate in impotence and sterility, and permanently induce all the concomitants of old age. Where a secret infirmity exists involving the happiness of a life and that of others, reason and morality dictate the necessity of its removal, for it is a fact that premature decline of the vigor of manhood, matrimonial unhappiness, compulsory single life, etc., have their sources in causes, the germ of which is planted in early life, and the bitter fruit tasted long after-ward; patients, laboring under this complaint, will complain of one or more of the following symptons: Nocturnal Emissions, Pains in the Back and Head, Weakness of Memory and Sight, Discharge from the Uretha on going to stool or making water, the Intellectual Faculties are Weakened, Loss of Memory ensues, Ideas are clouded and there is a disinclination to attend to business, or even to reading, writing or the society of friends, etc. The patient will probably complain of Dizziness, Vertigo and that Sight and Hearing are Weakened and sleep disturbed by dreams, melancholy, sighing, palpitations, faintings, coughs and slow fever; while some have external rheumatic pain, dimness of the body. Some of the most common symptons are pimples in the face and aching in different parts of the body. Patients suffering from this disease, should apply immediately to DR. PERRAULT, either in person or by letter as he will guarantee a cure of Seminal Emissions and Impotence in six to eight weeks.

Patients suffering from venereal diseases in any stage Gonorrhea, Gleet, Strictures, Bubo Ulcers, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., will be treated successfully. All Syphilitic and Mercurial Taints entirely removed from the system.

DR. PERRAULT'S diplomas are in his office, where patients can see for themselves that they are under the care of a regularly educated practitioner. The best references given if required.

Patients suffering under chronic diseases, can call and examine for themselves. We invite investigation; claim not to know everything, nor to cure everybody, but we do claim that in all cases taken under treatment we fulfil our promises. We particularly request those who have tried this boasted doctor, and that advertised physician, till worn out and discouraged, to call upon us.

Low charges and quick cures. Ladies suffering from any complaint incidental to their sex, can consult the doctor, with the assurance of relief.
